

1410 AM - Fort Myers
1660 AM - Naples

Pledge Now

Contact | Sitemap | Help

◀ Listen Live, Listen Now!

Search

▶ Relevant Radio Home

▶ Station Home

▶ Guest Archives

▶ Contact / Links

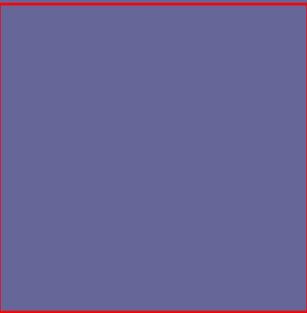

▶ This Week's Schedule

▶ Volunteer With Us

▶ Community Calendar

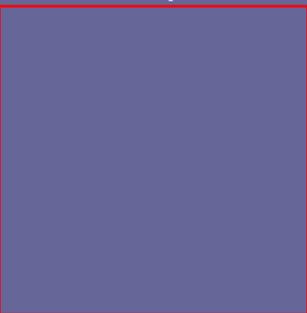

▶ Support Our Mission

Local Sponsors

To see local station sponsors and sponsorship opportunities, click here

Network Sponsors

To see network sponsors and network sponsorship opportunities, click here

Guest Archives

Thomas J. Serafin Holy Relics

Thomas J. Serafin is the founder of the International Crusade for Holy Relics and Saints Alive, the first website on the internet propagating the cultus of relics. He is the author of "Relics -The Forgotten Sacramental" and contributing writer on the subject of relics in the "Encyclopedia of Catholic Devotions".

His devotion to the propagation of proper veneration of relics and the education of the faithful has awarded him the honor of being Knighted "Chevalier" in the Order of Immaculate Conception of Vila Vicosa , Knight Commander of St. Michael of the Wing, and Officer in the Imperial Order of the Dragon of Annam (Liaison to His Imperial Highness, Prince NGUYEN PHUC Buu Chanh for the relics of Vietnamese Catholic Saints).

Serafin has also been appointed "Deputy Member of the Assembly" in the International Parliament for Safety and Peace. Because of his noteworthy achievements that have proven to be of a lasting value to society Mr. Serafin's biography has been included in the Marquis Who's Who in America and Who's Who in the World. Serafin has been recognized by the The International Biographical Centre, Cambridge, England in the 2004 edition of One Thousand Great Americans web site: <http://www.apostolateforholylrelics.com/>

Sitemap | Contact Us

Copyright 2004 – Starboard Media Foundation

