This podcast is the bus trip home from the March for Life in DC Jan 22 &23 2006. In my previous podcast "Offer It Up!", I was talking about the rough time I was having getting through my week. I mentioned that it could be because God was asking me to offer it up [...]

This is another quick "3 Minutes With A Saint" podcast. It was written by Mr. Thomas Serafin and read by David Rosemarin of St. Michael Church. The fine music was provided by my relatives most of whom have gone on years ago to be with the Lord! I hope you enjoy the production. Michael A. Barone

Ok, this podcast is just a brutally honest assessment of my week so far. I?m thinking that things are tough because I?m heading off to the March For Life in Washington, DC. It seems to me that things are getting harder on the way there. I know I?m just passing through some difficult situations dealing [...]

If you enjoyed hearing about Rollerchairball in one of my earlier podcasts you should enjoy this podcast which is its second part. One very fun thing about Rollerchairball is that the games are real, but the world of RCB is just fictional. The real fun is that there is a soap opera of sorts going [...]

This podcast is about the movie "Rent". Some friends of mine went to see it and although they have loved and listened to the music for the past year, they were appalled that the movie (and the play

Hello Everyone, This podcast is a first for us as we start to podcast stories about Saints. As some of you know I was a co-founder of The Dead Theologians Society and I have a very special love for the Saints. I have been fortunate enough to team up with Mr. Thomas Serafin (The Relic Man) [...]
